

Britain Charges Jews Down 5 RAF Planes

Give Pilots Authorization To Fight Back

By The Associated Press
Four British planes and a fifth plane identified as Egyptian were shot down by the Jewish air force and anti-aircraft units in fights over the Israeli-Egyptian front, Israel announced yesterday (Saturday).

In London the British air ministry said Israel shot down five RAF fighter planes patrolling over Egypt, and gave British fliers the go-ahead to fight back.

Not long afterwards, British representatives to the United Nations security council delivered in New York a strong protest to the ranking Israeli representative to U.N.

Refuses To Send Protest
Arthur Lourie, the Israeli representative, refused, however, to transmit the protest to Tel Aviv because it was not addressed to the Israeli government. Britain has not recognized the new state of Israel. The protest used the words "Jewish authorities at Tel Aviv."

Britain angrily called the shooting, which occurred Friday, an "unprovoked attack" and told RAF pilots to "regard as hostile any Jewish aircraft encountered" over Egypt.

On the other hand, an Israeli spokesman at U.N. headquarters in Lake Success charged that Britain had committed a "shocking violation of the United Nations truce" between Egypt and Israel by sending RAF planes across the border into Israel.

Linked with the general tension in the Middle East but unconnected with the plane incident was an announcement by a British spokesman in London that an undisclosed number of British troops have been moved into Akaba, strategic Red Sea port in Trans-Jordan, at the request of the country. The troops will guard the port.

British Warning Israel
At Kyrenia, Cyprus, Associated Press correspondent John Glicker, who has been in Trans-Jordan, described Britain's show of force near the Palestine border as a warning to Israel not to encroach on British interests in the Middle East.

Roderick said Britain considers her stake in the Suez Canal, Middle East oil, and the port of Akaba too great to allow incursions by others into Egypt and Trans-Jordan.

He told of aerial patrols by the British over Trans-Jordan border areas which raised the possibility of just such a clash with Jewish planes as the one of the Egyptian border.

Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, acting U.N. mediator, prepared to leave tomorrow for the island of Rhodes for armistice talks between Israeli and Egyptian representatives. Britain marked him in on its protest to Israel on the shooting down of her planes.

Says Truce Won't Last
Even as Egypt confirmed at Cairo that she has agreed to negotiate with Israel for a Palestine armistice, an Arab league spokesman predicted the truce would not last.

Abel Rahman Azzam Pasha, Egyptian secretary general of the seven-nation Arab league, asserted "there is no doubt the Zionists will not respect their pledges. Thus this phase is similar to previous phases, and anybody who thinks battles will not be renewed in Palestine will be mistaken."

Azzam Pasha jibed at "the regrettable hesitation of some politicians in Arab countries" which refused to join Egypt in the fight with Israel.

Mysterious Blast Injures 4 Persons At Auction Sale
Akron, Ohio, Jan. 8.—(AP)—A mysterious explosion injured at least four persons in a crowd of about 100 at a farm auction sale late today. It had Sheriff's deputies temporarily stumped.

"I don't know what happened," Chief Deputy Ray Woodard said after checking into the incident. Other deputies guessed a shotgun shell had exploded in a man's pocket.

The action was in progress at the Renner farm southeast of here near East Liberty. A sharp report was heard and several persons cried out in pain. All had been hit by "something like shotgun pellets," deputies said. None was hurt seriously.

Fred Zusky, 23, of Akron, a Kent State University student; Mrs. Mary Moore, 42, of Alliance Route 2, and Mrs. James Hunter, 33, of nearby Clinton were treated for cuts on their arms and legs.

Samuel Peller, 52, of Akron was kept at Peoples' hospital for treatment of a wound in his groin. His left front trouser pocket was blown away, but he denied that he was carrying anything explosive. Detective Sherman Gandee said.

Chiang Asks Big Three To Mediate Civil War

Nanking, Jan. 8.—(AP)—China's government reportedly made one more desperate bid for peace today as the Communists loosed intense attacks on Nanking's last defense line short of the Yangtze.

(From Peiping, AP Correspondent) Spencer Moosa reported pro-government dispatches acknowledged the Communists had penetrated the city limits of Tientsin, commercial center of north China.

(Those dispatches, he added, reported the Tientsin city council was appealing to both sides to halt the fighting.)

The ambassadors of the United States, Great Britain and France were summoned to the foreign office. A usually reliable source said they had been requested to ask their governments to try to mediate the civil war.

Lewis Begins UMW Free Hospital And Medical Care Plan

Washington, Jan. 8.—(AP)—John L. Lewis began today to put into operation the United Mine Workers' free hospital and medical care plan.

The service will be provided by the UMW welfare and retirement fund, of which Lewis is chief trustee. A 20-cent royalty on each ton of coal finances the fund, now building up at $100,000,000 a year.

From this, Lewis, the union's president, has announced he plans eventually to finance all medical and hospital care for the 400,000 coal miners. A separate fund is being used for Pennsylvania's 80,000 hard coal diggers.

As a start, activities will be directed to the hospitalization of miners who are already receiving disability benefits and pensions. These men, because they are not working, are unable to obtain services through an existing wage check-up system.

'Thinking' Guided Missile Planned By U. S. Scientists
Washington, Jan. 8.—(AP)—American military scientists appear to be working on the idea of a "thinking" guided missile that will identify the intended target from a picture, then attack it.

A hint of this uncanny flying monster with a brain was contained in a "glossary of guided missile terms" made public tonight by the research and development board.

The glossary's reference to the project was terse, saying merely: "Guidance homing, active—a system of homing guidance wherein both the source, for illuminating the target, and the receiver are carried within the missile."

The definition seemed to relate to an idea which some scientists have considered. Roughly, it is as follows: "A guided missile (it could be a rocket or merely a pilotless plane) is fitted with a television set and a picture of an intended target—perhaps an aerial photograph of a city. The missile is launched in the general direction of the target. When it arrives at a point where the pattern of the picture matches what its television 'eye' sees, the missile 'homes in' on the target."

Volcano Eruption In Hawaii Followed By Quake, Floods
Hilo, Hawaii, Jan. 8.—(AP)—A sharp earthquake jarred the island of Hawaii today and downpours of more than a foot of rain in 24 hours flooded some districts at the base of erupting Mauna Loa.

There was no report of damage from the quake. The downpours disrupted communications on Hawaii's interior and prevented detailed reports of flood damage.

The weather bureau recorded 9.91 inches of rainfall in the past 24 hours at the Hilo airport 34 miles northeast of the smoking volcano. There were heavier downpours nearer Mauna Loa.

Latest reports from the district around the 13,680-foot volcano said there had been no damage to villages and crops from the lava flow. The lava was slowing considerably as it moved down the western slope. Lava still was erupting from the crater at the summit.

Rain hampered an aerial search for a light plane which disappeared Friday morning near Mauna Loa on a sightseeing trip. The Hawaii aeronautics commission reported three men were aboard: Pilot James Redmon, Frank Lee, a Honolulu businessman, and William A. Simpson.

Minor Quakes Hit Verdi, Nevada
Verdi, Nev., Jan. 8.—(AP)—Western Nevada's latest flurry of minor earthquakes subsided today.

This well-jarred little town at the mouth of the Truckee river canyon felt six rolling tremors overnight, and another at 8:30 this morning.

None did any damage, and none approached the intensity of the jolt which shook the town Dec. 20.

Cardinal Stritch Has License Plate No. 1 In Illinois
Springfield, Ill., Jan. 8.—(AP)—Samuel Cardinal Stritch of Chicago has the No. 1 Illinois automobile license plate for 1949.

Cardinal Stritch was assigned tag number one for the third straight year. Secretary of State Edward J. Barrett announced today.

Judge Asks State Make People Wait In Divorce Cases

Sycamore, Ill., Jan. 8.—(AP)—A divorce court judge who thinks couples ought to "cool off" for 30 days before getting a divorce asked the Illinois Supreme Court today to make such a rule.

The judge reasons that many hot-headed couples will change their mind about divorce in 60 days. It's easier to change your mind before suit is filed, he holds.

Judge Julius H. Miner, Chicago, member of the Cook County circuit bench, filed a petition for the new divorce court rule with William J. Fulton, chief justice of the Illinois Supreme Court.

The petition will be heard by the Supreme Court in Springfield's Jan. 12.

Besides Judge Miner, the petitioners are the Illinois Bar association and the Chicago Bar association.

The petition also would make the same law apply to separate maintenance and annulment actions.

Philadelphia Has Biggest And Best Mummies Parade

Philadelphia, Jan. 8.—(AP)—King Mimus had to wait an extra week to strut in the New Year but he outdid himself today with the biggest, most colorful mummies parade of them all.

Guy E. Pearson, assistant superintendent of police, estimated that up to 2,000 persons jammed Center City sidewalks to view the slithering procession of the funmakers.

"Oh Dem Golden Slippers" rang out on a day tailor made for the occasion. A warm winter sun shone and temperatures were mild. There was just enough breeze to ruffle the elaborate capes of the capstans.

The parade was scheduled traditionally for New Year's Day but snow prompted officials to postpone it a week. The New Year never is official here without the Mummer's greetings.

Mummy—As Philadelphians now know it—began in 1876 with the formation of the Silver Crown association—and that group led every parade since.

Thirty-five associates presented a variety of acts. There were prizes totaling $50,000.

John J. Shields, who directed the march of 18,000 pairs of dancing feet—all male by tradition—said the extravaganza was the finest and best weather the best in the 45 years he has been associated with the Mummies.

Stevenson, Party Due In Springfield Sunday Evening

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 8.—(AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson will step in as 31st governor of Illinois Monday in a big show ushering Democrats to state control after eight years on the outside.

Stevenson and his party of 70 will arrive in Springfield at 8 p.m. Sunday in two special cars of the Gulf, Mobile and Ohio railroad. With him will be members of his family and close personal friends.

The Stevenson party will occupy one floor of the Abraham Lincoln hotel for the night.

On Monday morning, he will go to the executive mansion where dignitaries will gather in advance of the actual inauguration shortly after noon in the state armory.

Gov. Dwight H. Green, who will be 62 years old Sunday, will accompany his successor in the inaugural parade from the mansion to the armory. More than 6,000 invited guests will witness the oath-taking.

Cardinal Stritch Has License Plate No. 1 In Illinois
Springfield, Ill., Jan. 8.—(AP)—Samuel Cardinal Stritch of Chicago has the No. 1 Illinois automobile license plate for 1949.

Cardinal Stritch was assigned tag number one for the third straight year. Secretary of State Edward J. Barrett announced today.

Barrett said there were no changes from last year among the first 20 low number license plates, and few changes in numbers from 21 through 100.

So far, more than 630,000 sets of tags have gone into general distribution either by mail or in over-the-counter sales in Chicago. The metal plates are dark blue with yellow numerals.

Minor Quakes Hit Verdi, Nevada

Verdi, Nev., Jan. 8.—(AP)—Western Nevada's latest flurry of minor earthquakes subsided today.

This well-jarred little town at the mouth of the Truckee river canyon felt six rolling tremors overnight, and another at 8:30 this morning.

Symington Argues Worth Of 70-Group Air Force Plan

Appointment Of Acheson Killed Bipartisan Foreign Policy-GOP

Washington, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Senator Capehart (R-Ind.) called the bipartisan foreign policy "dead" tonight and Republican critics lined up to fight—or minutely analyze—nomination of Dean Acheson as secretary of state.

Because Republicans were not consulted by President Truman in advance of administration tactics from the time a few months ago when President Truman was reported to have passed over Acheson, his first choice, to name Paul G. Hoffman as Marshall plan administrator.

Hoffman had the vigorous support of Vandenberg. Senator Taft of Ohio, top Senate policy leader, announced at New Haven, Conn., that he "will certainly" vote for Acheson. That indicated that some of the Republicans are willing to go along on the nomination.

But Senator Wherry of Nebraska, the Republican floor leader, said he was surprised that the president did not consult with Vandenberg before making the appointment.

M'Arthur Defends Self Against LOOK Magazine Article
New York, Jan. 8.—(AP)—A magazine article claiming Gen. Douglas MacArthur has "misled the American people" about the extent of communism in Japan today brought sharp criticism from MacArthur himself, the magazine said.

The article in the current issue of LOOK magazine, written by Hallett Abend, former foreign correspondent, said MacArthur has "lured us into a false sense of security about the perilous situation in the Far East."

It cited supposed communist infiltration into Japanese labor unions. It also asserted that Russia had made propaganda use of alleged "high-handed and un-democratic methods" of the Allied supreme commander in Japan.

The magazine said MacArthur had replied in a cablegram to Gardner Cowles, editor of LOOK, that the article was completely unrealistic.

Look quoted MacArthur as saying that the article "follows the exact line of false propaganda now being put forth almost daily by Moscow and its calculated to achieve the same purpose."

MacArthur also was quoted as saying Abend had not been in Japan since the war and had no personal knowledge of conditions there.

Woman Pilot Sets Altitude Record For Light Planes
Miami, Fla., Jan. 8.—(AP)—Betty Skelton, 22-year-old Tampa, Florida, pilot, today set an unofficial national altitude record for light aircraft by climbing to 25,760 feet in a Piper Pa-11 aircraft.

The previous record of 24,400 feet was set before the war.

Miss Skelton's flight highlighted the second day of the 17th annual Miami All-American air maneuvers. More than 10,000 persons watched as the pert 1947 aerobatics champion spent nearly three hours making the altitude flight.

Miss Skelton said she would have gone higher but she ran out of oxygen. It was 12 degrees below zero at the peak of her climb, she said. "I'm going to try to break the international record of 26,000 feet. I know I can do it," she added.

Historian Reports Lincoln Had Four W. H. Secretaries
Springfield, Ill., Jan. 8.—(AP)—A historian reported evidence today that Abraham Lincoln had at least four White House secretaries. This would be one more than previously established.

Jay Monaghan, Illinois state historian and Lincolnlore authority, named the man as Gustave E. Matile.

Two brief letters Matile wrote from the executive mansion at Washington in 1864 were brought to Monaghan by a Springfield collector. They gave few personal details.

"Matile's existence may turn out to be mainly of antiquarian interest," Monaghan said. "But I'd like to find out more about him—where he came from and how Lincoln happened to hire him."

Both letters were addressed to S. N. Holmes, secretary of the Onondaga Historical Association, Syracuse, N. Y.

One accompanied a Lincoln autograph that Holmes sought.

Loses 3 Fingers To Bear In Zoo

Chicago, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Alex Anderson, 52, a visitor to the Lincoln Park Zoo, had three fingers bitten off today by the Zoo's European female brown bear.

R. Marlin Perkins, Zoo director, said Anderson climbed over the four-foot guard rail and fed the bear a piece of bread. The bear then grabbed Anderson's right hand.

The victim's screams brought a guard, Tony Yasillo, who drove off the animal with a pole. Perkins said Anderson is first visitor ever to be bitten by one of the animals at the Zoo. He was taken to a hospital.

Says Program Costly, But Time Is Short

Washington, Jan. 8.—(AP)—"We have 'none too much time' to prepare, Secretary of Air Symington said today. And he restated his belief in a 70-group air force despite its heavy cost.

The 70 combat groups are one feature of a four-year program aimed at creating by 1952 an air force able to meet any crisis. The air force began building toward it last year but it takes annual appropriations to fulfill the program.

With a tight national defense budget in prospect, the secretary of the air force said in his first annual report:

Expenditures Great
"The expenditures of money which this program requires are great. Legislative and executive authorities must constantly weigh the state of world conditions, the military needs of the country, and the efficiency and economy with which the air force is carrying out the program."

"But I solemnly urge that there be most carefully weighed the importance of stability and resoluteness."

"This country has not too much time to provide itself with the means of its own protection."

"It cannot afford the waste of its time and resources that are inherent in vacillation and stop-and-start planning."

Symington also described as "critical" needs:

1. A "radar fence" around the country to warn of air attack and direct the defense.

2. Additional housing for officers and men and their families to avoid loss of trained personnel who can't afford inflated civilian housing costs on their living allowances.

3. Unified medical services in the military establishment.

A plane group varies in size with the type of aircraft. In peace-time a heavy bomber group using B-29 superforts has 2,300 men and 30 aircraft. A fighter group has 1,900 men at a base, and 75 planes. War-time groups would be at least 50 percent larger.

The 70-group plan has warm friends on Capitol Hill. Although a foreign policy dead end, it is ready to fight any administration proposal as they don't like it.

And, in another significant development at the end of the first week of the session, Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) called for a full exploration of the views of Dean Acheson, President Truman's nominee for secretary of state.

Capehart was critical of President Truman for not consulting Vandenberg in advance about the Acheson appointment. Vandenberg is rated the Republicans' top Senate expert on foreign affairs and has been a pillar of the two-party foreign affairs policy.

FORMER SLAVE DIES
Louisville, Ky., Jan. 8.—(AP)—Robert Henry, 98-year-old Negro who was born in slavery but worked his way up to ownership of a 160-acre farm, died here today. His wife, also born in slavery, died about three months ago at 102 years of age.

PAINTER DIES
Alhambra, Calif., Jan. 8.—(AP)—Jack Wilkinson Smith, 75, known in art circles as one of the nation's leading landscape and marine painters, died today. He had been hospitalized for a week.

Winter Rounds Out Weather Binge With New Blizzards

By The Associated Press
The nation's week-long weather deatn toll stood at 79 as the new storm moved in. Tornadoes exploded chain fashion across Arkansas and Louisiana killed 59 earlier in the week and at least 20 perished in blizzards.

A new storm from Canada howled into Montana and Wyoming. It needed south and eastward. This is the same general area still digested out from the season's worst blizzard earlier in the week.

To the west, another mass of chill air moved down from Alaska and Canada toward California. It is expected to arrive Sunday night, and forecasters said the air mass is "even colder than it was last week."

The California forecast carried the threat of new destruction to the already "damaged fruit and vegetable crops."

As rising winds and skidding temperatures heralded the coming of the new onslaught, the weather bureau in Denver issued a special storm warning to travelers and stockmen in Colorado and Wyoming.

The Chicago weather bureau said the cold wave, with blowing and drifting snow, would spread as far east as upper Michigan. Much colder weather was in store for the entire Midwest.

WEATHER
The Norbury Sanatorium, cooperative observer for the U.S. Weather Bureau, yesterday reported the temperatures for Saturday as follows: High, 58; low, 34; and at 6 p.m., 49.

Forecast for Illinois—Much colder Sunday. Snow with strong northerly winds overspreading state Sunday.

Invite H. S. Musicians To Band Conference

The fourth annual Mac Murray College Band Festival will be held Saturday, Jan. 29, at the Jacksonville high school auditorium, according to an announcement by Henry E. Busche, general chairman of the event. Mr. Busche is conductor of the MacMurray choir and and concert band and instructor of public school music and wind instruments.
The guest conductor will be Newell Long, assistant professor of music at the University of Indiana, where he is instructor of band arranging and conducting and administration of instrumental music.
Mr. Long is an outstanding composer and arranger for band. Notable among his works are arrangements which can be performed by full concert organizations or condensed for smaller groups. One of the valuable features of the festival will be a forum conducted by Mr. Long at 4 p. m., in which he will answer questions on arranging for school bands.
Concert In Evening
He will direct the rehearsals of the festival band and conduct the major concert on Saturday night, which will be the climax of the day's activities. The public is cordially invited. The MacMurray band will also perform on this program.
Helen Perse, a freshman at MacMurray, will instruct visiting students in the techniques of baton twirling. Miss Perse, of Booneville, Mo., has won state honors in her field.
All high schools within a radius of 75 miles are invited to send eight or nine of their best student musicians to this festival. Last year 35 students representing 22 schools took part in the event.
The MacMurray concert band will act as hostesses to the group. Following afternoon rehearsals, the guests will be given an informal entertainment, including dancing to the music of the College dance orchestra. In the social room of Main Hall, they will attend the President's dinner in McClelland Hall.
Valera Berry, student director of the College band, is in charge of registration and publicity, and Charlene Koch, a junior music student, is chairman of campus arrangements. James Welch, director of the Jacksonville High School band and the Illinois College group, will act as chairman of the festival day.

This subject blends well with the 1949 balance legume and grass program and soil improvement program that is now underway in Jersey county. Professor J. C. Spittler, state leader of farm advisers and assistant director of extension, will present a brief discussion of the accomplishments of agriculture in the past quarter century.

Auto Parts Store At Jerseyville Hit By Burglars

Jerseyville — One Jerseyville business house was broken into late Wednesday night by burglars, and efforts were made to break into a number of others.
The burglars gained entrance to the Jerseyville Auto Parts store in the Morgan hotel building by breaking a window leading into the balcony office. They broke their way into a small metal safe and took 47 dollars in bills and some loose change. They also stole a fountain pen and it was anticipated that a further checkup would reveal the loss of a number of other valuable auto parts items.
The burglary was discovered by employees of the store when they came to work Thursday morning. The burglary was reported to the office of Sheriff C. E. Wedding and the local police.

BACK TO MOTHER'S GRANDMOTHER'S DAY

The hats and dresses that great grandmother wore as a girl are again in style. So are many of the home furnishings that she knew.

Not yet, however, has the revival brought back the leather moneybag that the men folks carried or the roll of bills that once seemed so impressive. There is too much convenience and protection and far more prestige in a checkbook nowadays!

The Farmers State Bank is helping thousands of men and women to handle their money matters the modern way — may we help you?

Three Deaths, 40 Injuries Result From Accidents

Three persons lost their lives in traffic accidents in the City of Jacksonville during 1948, a period in which 43 reportable accidents occurred on the streets. These facts are contained in a traffic report for the past year which has been prepared by the police department, and will be sent to the Illinois Division of Highways and National Safety Council.

Two of the fatalities in 1948 were pedestrians, while the third occurred at a railroad crossing where a truck was struck by a train. Forty persons were injured by traffic accidents within the city during the year. Police department records show that 49 trucks, automobiles, scooters, and bicycles were involved in accidents in which damage is less than $50 are listed as non-reportable to the state department. Thirty-two vehicles involved in accidents were driven by minors between 15 and 19 years old.

WHITE WOMAN, 90, TO MARRY NEGRO CHAUFFEUR, 28

Los Angeles, Jan. 8.—(AP)—"This is not romance," said Mrs. Odriana Eugene Nicolson, 90, as she obtained a license to marry her 28-year-old negro chauffeur. I want him to have my property when I am gone."

Mrs. Nicolson, white, and the chauffeur, Allen Lee Gustard Woods, got the license yesterday. She has been widowed twice and he is divorced. They have not set a wedding date.

Beware of Romance
By Roberta Courtland

THE STORY: When Susan and Merry and Carrie don't get along and Merry jumps at her father's invitation to spend Christmas with him and Lissa in New York. Lissa is a gracious, attractive woman and Merry senses that her father's second marriage is a happy one.

XX

Lissa slipped a hand through Merry's arm and drew her down three steps into an enormous living room, where an open fire burned beneath a beautiful Adam mantel, and where a young man stood waiting, his hair darkly red, his eyes gray, his alert, deeply sun-tanned face rugged and, if not handsome, so very attractive that Merry had a confused feeling she had seen him in the movies.

"This, Merry," said Lissa, indicating the smiling, lazy-eyed, amused young man, "is something I trapped for you as soon as I knew you were coming. His name is Channing, Mike. Channing. Of course, if you don't think you're going to love him, we can throw him back."

Mike's eyes were on Merry's scarlet face, and he said sternly to Lissa, "Hush! You're embarrassing the child."

Lissa looked at Merry, her eyebrows raised.

"Oh, I'm terribly sorry. Am I embarrassing you?" she asked, as though a little disappointed.

Merry laughed. "Well, after all, I am only an unsophisticated country gal and I don't know the game you're playing."

Lissa nodded. "Oh, well, Mike will teach you, won't you, darling?"

"But of course. Why else am I here?" said Mike reasonably. "How about trotting along to dinner, Merry?"

Executive Group Of Home Bureau Hears Reports

Mrs. Marvin Tholen, Morgan-Scott assistant home adviser, Friday submitted her resignation, effective Feb. 1, to the executive committee of the Home Bureau when it met for a regular meeting at the Farm Bureau.

Mrs. Tholen has served as assistant home adviser for nearly two years.

Mrs. James Dunlap, vice chairman, presided due to the illness of Mrs. Harold Joy, chairman. Mrs. W. G. Watt, membership chairman of Scott county, announced that county now has 120 Home Bureau members. Morgan county has 330 members, in addition to 29 courtiers and 37 associate members, Mrs. Dunlap reported.

Plans were made for the members to attend the 4-H meeting in Springfield Jan. 14. The group will also attend the health meeting Jan. 21 at the Marquette hotel in Peoria and the Farm and Home Week to be held in Champaign Jan. 31.

Plans were also made for serving the Scott county Rural Youth banquet at Bluffs Jan. 27.

Mrs. J. E. Long reported on the successful Drama and Musical festival held Tuesday at the Salvation Army hall by the Rural Youth members. The winners will represent Morgan and Scott counties at Mt. Sterling Jan. 20.

The next executive board meeting will be held Saturday, Feb. 5, at 1 p.m.

the blue net? I will have it pressed and returned to Mam'zelle in time," said Mathilda, and took herself off with Merry's best formal over her arm.

Obviously, Merry told herself, only her very best frock was grand enough for dinner there at home, her father's home; only it was probably much more Lissa's home, because Merry felt quite sure her father wasn't rich enough to afford a penthouse like that.

AT dinner, Kin and Merry chatted about Marshallville, while Lissa looked on, obviously not the least bit bored. Afterwards, there was a new musical and a night club. The whole evening was a bright picture to Merry, who went to bed feeling that she was the luckiest girl in the world.

The following morning Lissa took her shopping, and though Merry's eyes shone with delight and she was ecstatic at the extent of the purchases, she was also a little appalled. And when she and Lissa were back in the apartment that evening, she said awkwardly, "You are terribly good to me, Lissa, only haven't we been terribly extravagant today? I mean—well, I don't want to run Dad into bankruptcy."

Lissa smiled at her.

"Don't be frightened, Merry. The shopping today was my gift. After all, if I can't make Kin's child a little present—"

Merry gasped. "A little present? Lissa, my gosh! A fur coat, heaps of darling frocks—golly, I can't even remember what all we bought! More clothes than I could ever wear out if I lived to be a hundred."

Lissa's smile deepened.

"I wouldn't worry about that! The life we're planning for you to lead is a bit hard on clothes. Within a month you'll be complaining you simply haven't a thing to wear!"

"I couldn't possibly—"

"But don't you worry your pretty little head about expenses, Merry," Lissa said lightly. "And now if you're going out on the town with Mike, you'd better run along and get a bit of rest before it's time to dress."

(To Be Continued)

Chambersburg Five Wins PMSC Tourney; Our Saviour's Third

The Chambersburg grade school five copped the championship trophy in the PMSC grade tourney at Chicago from the Mercedia Juniors, 20 to 11 count Saturday night. The first quarter was very slow, with Chambersburg getting the nod 3 to 2 at the end of hostilities in this period. Mercedia failed to rally once in the second frame to come up on the short end of a 9 to 1 score at the intermission.

In the third canto Chambersburg continued to pour it on the Morgan county bunch, and went into a 15 to 5 lead, and from there coasted to an easy 20 to 11 win to take the crown.

Poole was high for the champs, garnering 7 tallies during the fracas. Yeakey dumped in 5 counters for the losers.

The consolation contest was a much closer game with Our Saviour's finally taking the fray by a 25 to 23 margin from the five, Chapin.

Jimmy Conzelman Quits As Chicago Card Coach To Enter Business

Chicago, Jan. 8.—(P)—A St. Louis advertising firm has pulled the biggest coup of the season on the high-bidding pro football market by luring Jimmy Conzelman out of his Chicago Cardinals coaching job and into the business world.

It was done without much effort, since the irreplaceable 49-year-old coach in his letter of resignation said he decided to get out of football and settle down to a more normal family life.

As an account executive for the D'Arcy Advertising Company, which has made him one of sports most colorful figures, will come in handy. For two years he has worked for the firm on off seasons.

But, as Cardinal President Ray Bennis, puts it—"Will he be happy out of football? He has been in pro football, off and on since 1920 as player and coach.

Has Spurned Several Offers
Conzelman in his resignation praised the Cardinal football playing personnel and his assistant coaches Phil Handler, Buddy Parker and Dick Plasman whom he significantly tabbed as "being well equipped to carry on the coaching duties."

The rough-hewn, white maned Conzelman spurned several lucrative coaching offers while with the Cardinals especially since 1946 when they began to rise from a mediocre National Football League club and flex a giant's muscles. They won 6 and lost 5 in 1946, had a 9-3 record in their championship 1947 year, and captured the 1948 western division crown with 11-1. They lost the championship playoff to the Philadelphia Eagles—a team they defeated 28-21 for the 1947 title—7-0 in a snow storm last month.

Conzelman replaced Ernie Nevers as the Cardinals' football boss in 1940 after serving eight years as coach at his alma mater, Washington University in St. Louis and giving that school three Missouri valley titles.

DeKalb Wins No. 11
In its 12th consecutive victory, the No. 2 team, Kankakee, topped Lockport, 63-41. DeKalb's sixth-place Barbs made it 11 in a row with a 54-40 decision over Ottawa.

Evanson and Sterling township racked up their ninth wins apiece by defeating Waukegan and Dixon respectively. Evanston, ranked No. 8, handed Waukegan its second reverse in eight outings, 38-25. Sterling defeated an unimpressive Dixon squad 66-41.

Fourth-place Mt. Vernon, with only a one point decision to Salem to mar its state, outpointed West Frankfort, 61-39, for its 12th triumph.

Once-beaten Collinsville defeated Belleville by a narrow margin, 40-39, for its seventh win. Moline outlasted a capable Rock Island crew 57-42 for its eighth victory against one loss. Collinsville currently is ranked No. 21 and Moline, No. 7.

Danville Defeats Champaign
The 13th-ranked LaGrange club (won 10, lost 3) overwhelmed York of Elmhurst, 43-19. Danville's 10th place squad conquered Champaign, 64-41, for its 11th triumph in 13 games. It was Champaign's third loss in 10 starts.

Monmouth's Zippers (7-2) stopped 14th rated Galesburg, 49-36, in the Streak's eighth contest of the season.

The No. 1 team, Elgin's Maroons, were idle this weekend and resume play Jan. 14 when they play host to West Aurora.

Fifth-place Paris (12-1) stopped Germertown of Terre Haute, Ind., 59-35, and 12th ranked Marion (7-6) bowed at Benton, 62-52, Thursday.

In other games Friday night, Edwardsville (6-4) won over Madison 56-31. Riverside-Rockford (10-2) defeated Downers Grove, 54-31. Harrisburg (10-2) handed Centralville its 6th reverse in 13 games, 48-46; Salem (8-5) beat Fairfield, 55-51; and Western Academy of Macomb racked up its 12th straight victory, 56-46, over Macomb.

Minnesota Rolls Over Michigan
Minneapolis, Jan. 8.—(P)—Minnesota rolled over Michigan, defending Big Nine champion, 43-31, tonight in the first conference basketball game of the season for the two schools. Minnesota's Jim McIntyre led his undefeated outfit with 20 points.

The lead passed back and forth until midway in the first period when Minnesota's Whitey Skoog counted a field goal. The Gophers moved ahead, 11-10, boosting their edge with McIntyre and Skoog's leadership to 24-16 at the half.

Minnesota rested on its laurels as the second half began, letting the Wolverines come after them. Even so, Skoog and McIntyre hooped eight points while Michigan's Bob Harrison was managing two.

When the second half was four minutes old, Minnesota's edge was 32-18 and Michigan's offensive never again got into gear.

The desperate title defenders began heaving mid-floor shots at the Gopher basket but to no avail. Michigan Coach Ernie McCoy assigned Pete Elliott to clamp down on whirlwind Skoog, but despite Elliott's work, the Minnesota forward hit a total of 16.

Wheaton Defeats Lake Forest 71-43
Wheaton, Ill., Jan. 8.—(P)—Wheaton College scored its second Little Nine conference basketball victory in two starts tonight, defeating Lake Forest College, 71-43.

Marv Johnson, Wheaton center, dumped in 28 points, bringing his season's total, including non-conference games, to 263.

North Central Wins 2nd Little 9 Game
Naperville, Ill., Jan. 8.—(P)—North Central won its second game of the young Little Nine basketball conference season, defeating Augustana tonight, 65 to 54. North Central led at halftime, 33-21.

Guard John Berger took scoring honors for the winners with 18 points, but Augustana's center, Clint Schryver, topped all scoring with 22 points.

It was Augustana's third league loss.

Western State Defeats Normal
Macomb, Ill., Jan. 8.—(P)—Western State College won its sixteenth straight home basketball game tonight by defeating Illinois State Normal 55 to 49.

Western led all the way and headed Normal 37 to 26 at the half. The winners used their second team during most of the second half.

It was the first ILAC game for both teams this season, and marked Western's 12th win in 14 starts this year.

High scorer was Al Miksis, who garnered 28 points for the winners. Ron Hughes and Leon Heinle each counted nine for Normal.

Illini Beat Indiana 44-42 In Double Overtime Thriller

Bloomington, Ind., Jan. 8.—(P)—Substitute Fred Green hit a field goal in the last second of a second overtime period tonight to give Illinois a 44-42 Big Nine basketball victory over Indiana.

It was the 50th game between the universities and a capacity crowd of 10,013 saw a contest as tight as any in the long series. The result kept Illinois on top of the western conference standings with two victories.

The score was 37-all when the regular playing period ended and 40-all after the first overtime.

Green, a six-foot seven-inch reserve center, sank the game-winning hook shot from about 20 feet out. The same gangling but nerveless youngster tossed the basket that gave Illinois a 52-51 victory over Indiana here last season. His decisive basket tonight was his only fielder of the game and he ate out the entire second half of the regular playing period.

Most of the action came late in the game. Both teams were cold from the field and neither scored in the first three minutes. Indiana took a 4-1 lead, Indiana rallied for a 4-5 margin, and the Illini came back to trail only 20-17 at the half.

Indiana tried to stall in the last two minutes of the second half with a 37-33 lead. Dike Eddleman hit a long shot for the Illini and Don Sunderlage tied the score with a one-handed basket on an out-of-bounds play.

Center Tom Schwartz of Indiana and forward Jim Marks of Illinois traded free throws to start the first extra period. Eddleman hit another long shot. Illinois had a 40-38 margin—and possession of the ball—with 15 seconds left. Jerry Stueville of Indiana batted the ball out of Dick Foley's hands, picked it up and dribbled under to force a second overtime.

Illinois missed eight free throws in the second extra session and muffed 23 of 35 in the entire game. Five players fouled out in the last five-minute scramble and all points scored were free throws except Green's big basket.

Wisconsin Blasts Creighton 75-39
Madison, Wis., Jan. 8.—(P)—The University of Wisconsin overwhelmed Creighton, 75-39, tonight in a rather dull basketball game witnessed by 13,000 persons.

Coach Harold "Bud" Foster used 19 players in the one-sided game and 13 of them broke into the scoring column.

The Badgers hopped right off into the lead and kept going, limiting the Omaha team to three baskets in the first half while Wisconsin rolled up a 40-14 halftime score.

Wisconsin's top scorer, Don Rehfeldt, held on to his honors with seven baskets for 14 points. Fred Schneider and Don Page were close behind with 13 and 12, respectively. Bill Montgomery was high for Creighton with 11.

The victory was Wisconsin's sixth in 10 starts and marked the Badgers' return to Madison after a five-game road trip. Wisconsin plays its second Big Nine game of the season at Minnesota Monday night. The Badgers lost their first league start to Illinois.

Ohio State Quells Wildcats 68-56
Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 8.—(P)—Ohio State weathered a mid-third quarter Northwestern rally successfully tonight to open its 1949 Big Nine basketball season with a 68 to 56 victory over the Wildcats.

The Buckeyes got off on the victory side before a crowd of 6,065 in the fairgrounds coliseum.

After trailing at halftime, 32-24, the underdog Wildcats came back with a fine streak of rebounding and shooting to take the lead at 44-39 on a long push shot by Jim Barr with less than 12 minutes left to play.

The Bucks got back the lead at 42-41, lost it again at 43-42 and trailed at one time 44-42. Then center Bob Radiger hooked in a "line drive" to tie it up. "Dead Eye Dick" Schmitt put it on ice with a goal and a free throw for a lead Ohio never relinquished.

Blueboys Hand Quincy College Quint 85-61 Hardwood Defeat

The Illinois College quint had an easy time with the Raiders from Quincy college on the ISD boards Saturday night as they handed them an 85 to 61 setback in their third cage meeting of the season. Previously the Blueboys and Raiders had split two contests.

Bob Murrin and Don Longer sparked the locals with some beautiful rebounding in the opening minutes of play to push them into an early lead which they never relinquished to the invading Western Illinois gang. Four IC cagers showed in quick buckets to tally for the hill at the intermission by a 48 to 25 tally.

Bickhaus, Quincy pivot man, tried to stage a one-man rally for the invading quint as the second half opened and flipped in some nice layups to add to this evening's total of 16 points. However, it was still the case of too much IC in this canto, and the locals kept up their sterling brand of ball and coasted to an easy 85 to 61 win.

Every IC Cager Performs
Al Miller used every man on his bench in the fray, and ten of the cagers tallied. Kenny Bloomer, IC star during the '42 season made his '49 hardwood debut with the hill-toppers, and did a credible job. He should make a fine addition to an already-good Blueboy squad when he rounds into shape.

Chisox Get Hurler Bill Bevins From N. Y. Yankees
Chicago, Jan. 8.—(P)—Baseball's busiest rebuilders, the Chicago White Sox, today had salvaged Floyd (Bill) Bevins, loser of a one-hitter in the 1947 World Series, from the New York Yankees.

He comes to the Sox mound staff conditionally, and can be returned if his sore shoulder does not work into shape. The big 31-year-old right-hander, twirled 82-3 hitless innings against Brooklyn in the 1947 series only to lose 2-1 when Cookie Lavagotto doubled in two runs.

Frank Lane, new general manager of the White Sox, said if Bevins "can't pitch, he'll go back to the Yankees. By taking him we stray a bit from our youth movement but if he returns to form he will add needed stability to our pitching staff."

The addition of Bevins gives the Sox 18 pitchers, including newcomers Walt Pierce, Bob Kuzava, Ernie Groth, Matt Surkont, Bill Briggs, Chuck Eisenmann, Bill Evans and Jim Goodwin, and Johnny Perkovich and Marv Rotblatt, each of whom was tried out by the Sox last year.

Humane Society Saves Goat From Ignoble Night In Jail

A white nanny goat of undetermined age, but with an apparent year for human companionship, landed in the city jail Saturday night. But for the prompt action of Major Servais and the Jacksonville Humane society, she'd spent the night there.

She seemed contented at the jail, though. Tethered on a rope borrowed from the fire department, she did her best to make friends with the policemen, firemen and other visitors. A lover of tobacco, she nibbled up several cigarettes and when they were gone consumed the package, cellophane, paper, foil and all.

She was locked up after an afternoon of loitering on the east side of town. Early Saturday afternoon somebody called the station and told the sergeant that a lost goat had been tied up near 308 Hardin avenue. Evidently she quietly gnawed through the rope and kept on going.

Many people found her altogether too sociable. They distinctly disliked the way she followed them around. She looked congenial enough they conceded, but they didn't enjoy their walk in Saturday's balmy air with Nanny's horns only an inch or so behind them.

A lady on a bicycle especially disliked the way the friendly goat galloped along beside her.

Nanny followed a small boy into the basement of his home. Later she took a good look at Passavant hospital.

Officer Frances Willner was assigned the task of corralling the stray. He borrowed a rope from the fire ladders and started off, leaving his quarry on East College avenue. He fashioned a knot that would make any Boy Scout shiver and tied her to the garage door.

Major Servais dropped around later and hauled her away. He reported that the society now has three stray goats on hand.

The police were glad the other two hadn't caused so much trouble.

Labor Unions Need No Babying—Denham

Says T-H Act Restrictions Should Stay

Washington, Feb. 8.—(AP)—The government's chief prosecutor under the Taft-Hartley law told senators today that labor unions have "grown up" and "don't need to be babyed or petted any more."

Robert N. Denham, chief counsel of the National Labor Relations Board, said that therefore there is no reason why unions should be exempted from certain Taft-Hartley "unfair labor practice" charges which may be filed against them.

Denham made his remarks to the Senate labor committee, which is conducting hearings on the administration's labor bill. The bill would repeal the Taft-Hartley law and substitute a modified Wagner Act.

Far Behind Schedule
The committee, shooting at a Thursday evening deadline for winding up the hearings, which makes a court (D-Mont.) told reporters the Democratic majority might try to put a new time limit on testimony by individual witnesses in an effort to speed things up.

Senator Morse (R-Ore.) indicated that the Republican members, solidly opposed to the Thursday deadline, would fight any move to curtail testimony further.

Denham first appeared before the committee yesterday when he called the Taft-Hartley law "basically sound." He was back today for cross examination.

Objects On One Point
At one point, Denham objected to a provision of the law which makes it mandatory for the NLRB to seek a court injunction against unions to block secondary boycotts, before the board has ruled on a complaint.

(In a secondary boycott, a union having a dispute with one company tries to stop other firms from doing business with that company.)

Urging that the general counsel be given discretion instead of being compelled to seek an injunction, Denham called the power of "tremendous value," but "at times embarrassing," he added.

"It is sometimes like hunting a field mouse with a 16-inch gun," Senator Taft (R-Ohio), leader of the anti-repeal forces, said he was "inclined to agree" with Denham in his objection to the mandatory aspect of the injunction provision.

Favors Employer
"It leaves the law open to the charge of being one-sided, that it favors the employer over the employee," Taft commented.

The Ohioan said the section "ought to be worked over, but I don't want to take a final position on it." On another point, Taft agreed with Denham that the scope of the T-H law ought to be more clearly defined by congress.

"People engaged in business should know whether the law applies to them in a particular case, or whether it doesn't," Taft said.

The law now carries a broad provision making it applicable to all activities affected by interstate commerce.

Taft-Hartley repeal would wipe out several of the "unfair labor practice" provisions under which unions now are liable.

In telling the committee there is no reason why unions should be exempted in many cases as they would be under the administration bill, Denham said:

"Unions have grown up. They don't need to be babyed or petted any more."

He added that unions are big enough now so that "they can be as independent as big business."

Prize Bull Killed Because He Could Not Become Papa
Des Moines, Feb. 8.—(AP)—A $38,000 prize bull was put to death today because he couldn't become a papa. As a paternal dud, Rupert brought $230.

Rupert 99th walked to his doom with a dignity befitting his noble lineage.

The blue-blooded animal, owned by Gov. Roy Turner of Oklahoma, had remained unresponsive to five years of treatments designed to enable him to produce little prize bulls.

High hopes had been held for Rupert after a delicate pituitary transplant operation was performed last fall. But although Rupert showed a lively romantic interest in the bovine female sex, he remained sterile as ever.

Thus it was that the reluctant decision came to convert Rupert into bologna which was all he was good for. The coup de grace was administered at a Des Moines packing plant an hour before noon.

New Blizzards Harass Weather-Weary West

By The Associated Press

Bad weather walloped the blizzard-burdened west with triple-barreled blows again Tuesday—and still another storm was whistling down out of Alaska.

A 50 mile an hour Canadian storm blustered down upon Montana and eastern Washington, after part of it swung across Washington at daybreak. Snowflakes jammed shut both major cross-state highways.

Bitter cold rolled down out of Canada and stung North Dakota, Montana and Wyoming. The sub-zero wave threatened to hit Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa and Illinois by Wednesday.

Devastating blizzards roared across Wyoming and spoiled 24 hours work by the army's heavy snowplow crews. Drifting snow rebuffed more than 2,300 miles of Wyoming roads which the soldiers had opened. About 4,000 persons were marooned on 28 stalled trains.

Northern California, still groggy from the week-end storms, braced itself for a new storm Tuesday night.

The San Francisco weather man said it wouldn't be as severe as the two before—but it won't be the last. Still another disturbance is forming in Alaska. It is expected to sweep down on northern California Thursday or Friday.

The rest of the nation had generally fair weather. The south was warm and the east coast had seasonable temperatures. It was mild in the Ohio Valley and in the lower and middle Mississippi valley.

The mercury rode high in the mid-sixties from Atlanta to New Orleans. Light rains wet the Gulf coast but Florida basked in sunshine with 70 to 80 degree temperatures.

Part of the snowstorm heading in to Montana out of British Columbia hit Washington's east coast at daybreak and shot eastward aboard high winds. But it subsided quickly and left warm air and rain in its wake. Farther east, heavy snow drifted, and the warm air forced closing of Stevens Pass and Snoqualmie Pass, in the Cascade mountains.

The Northwest storm front blew warmer air east and southeast toward chilled Montanans Tuesday night, but colder air just north of it in Canada was expected to tag along behind and re-freeze the eastern side of the Rockies.

Similar quick changes jiggled the mercury in Washington. At Yakima it jumped 19 degrees in 10 minutes, and then leveled off at 42 above. Washington's daybreak storm huffed its way as far south as Pendleton, Ore.

Former Mental Patient Admits Firing Church
Chicago, Feb. 8.—(AP)—A former inmate of the Manteno, Ill. state mental hospital today orally admitted, police said, setting a fire which caused $35,000 damage to a Roman Catholic church.

Edward Arnold, 36, was identified as the arsonist by Police Detective Edward Walsh. Walsh said Arnold re-enacted the setting of the fire at St. Gabriel's church on the southwest side.

Walsh said Arnold first took a candle from a standard, went into the rooms behind the altar, and showed how he ignited vestments used by the priests and altar boys.

These garments were in separate lockers. The fire spread throughout the church.

Arnold broke down and wept when he saw the burned church. "Look, all those beautiful windows aren't here any more," he exclaimed. Walsh said Arnold insisted he has no malice toward the church. He gave no reason for his action.

St. Louis Dealer Reports $30,000 In Diamonds Taken
St. Louis, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Jason Kavin, a diamond dealer, reported to police that 1,625 unmounted diamonds valued at about $30,000 were stolen this afternoon from his office in a downtown building.

Kavin said the gems were stolen from two unlocked portable cases which he left on a desk for about 10 minutes while he went into an adjoining office to speak to his two employees. Kavin told police he heard no one enter the office during the time he was gone.

One small diamond was found on the floor and a door leading from the room to a corridor was open. Kavin said. The dealer said the loss was partly covered by insurance.

MANUFACTURER DIES
St. Petersburg, Fla., Feb. 8.—(AP)—Albert Bishop, 64, of Centerville, Mo., died at a hotel here today.

Bishop, a manufacturer of automotive accessories, came here Dec. 29 for the winter season.

Economic Adviser Says 1949 Prosperity Prospects Good
Washington, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Prospect for 1949 are still bright, a White House adviser told congress today. But he said action on the Truman long-range economic program is necessary now to prevent a possible $300,000,000,000 depression in the next decade.

Leon Keyserling, vice chairman of the council of economic advisers, told the Senate-House economic committee that the nation may lose that much in national income if it follows the "boom and bust" pattern of the 1920's.

Meantime the Senate banking committee ordered an investigation of why prices charged to consumers stay so high while many prices paid to farmers have skidded.

As the probe was announced, grain prices crashed again. All grains and soybeans broke the permissible daily limit on the three major commodity markets. However, the stock market held steady, a fact which Wall Street considered impressive.

Keyserling said that if the country steered a course between "galloping inflation" and "paralyzing deflation," it could look forward to continued prosperity.

"The outlook for 1949 is still bright, and by optimism combined with the right course of action we can keep it bright," he said.

He added, however, that the bright outlook could be changed into a "gloomy one within the year" unless steps are taken to stabilize the nation's economy.

Expanding on the danger-of-delay theme, he said the cost of the depression which started in 1929 was well over $300,000,000,000—or approximately the cost of World War II. In the next ten years, he added, there could be a difference of $800,000,000,000 in national income, depending on "whether we achieve a stable rate of growth or repeat the pattern of boom and bust."

He did not explain how he reached this huge figure.

North Atlantic Powers Meet On Defense Pact

Washington, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Secretary of State Acheson took personal charge of North Atlantic treaty negotiations today while aides sought answers to a series of knotty questions posed by Norway.

Acheson met with the ambassadors of Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg in a conference called primarily to speed the regional security project into final drafting stages.

The session lasted for two hours and 15 minutes. It was thus one of the longest since the negotiations started last summer.

When it broke up, British Ambassador Sir Oliver Franks told waiting reporters it was "one of our usual meetings." He declined to say whether Norway's position had been discussed.

One question which the conference was reported to have had up for discussion is how soon to make public the specific points of the proposed treaty.

The Netherlands envoy, Eelco Van

Kleffens, replied when a reporter asked when the terms would be made public:

"I don't know that the pact is ready, for that is what your question implies."

Baron Silvercruys, the Belgian ambassador, said the negotiators plan to meet again "in the fairly near future." He declined to say specifically when.

Acheson has scheduled a news conference tomorrow morning, and some officials consider it possible he may issue then a statement on the substance of the treaty.

In addition, diplomatic authorities speculated that Acheson wants the views of the other negotiating nations on issues raised by Norwegian Foreign Minister Halvard Lange. Lange is in Washington trying to determine what protections and obligations his country would have if it joined the negotiations.

Lange talked with Acheson yesterday. Today he and his advisers met for two hours with other top state department officials. The meetings will continue for several days.

Persons present at today's sessions declined later to discuss what occurred, but it was believed the United States is seeking to reassure Norway not only about the greater security which officials believe it would have as a member of the alliance, but also about its temporary security during the negotiations.

Dewey Tells GOP To Look Forward At Lincoln Dinner
Washington, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey tonight called on Republicans who oppose "liberal, progressive" policies to get out of the party.

He struck out also at New Dealish elements in the GOP, and advised the party to "stop bellyaching about the past." He urged it to dedicate itself anew to forward-looking programs of social progress, but without trying to "outbid the Democrats with the public money."

In an address prepared for a Lincoln Day dinner—his first major speech since his defeat for the presidency last November—Dewey cited what he called many basic differences between the Republican and Democratic programs and denied he was a "me too" Republican.

He recalled that the last GOP platform expressed wholehearted belief in unemployment insurance, increased old age assistance, broader social security generally, slum clearance and public housing, public development of water power, and farm price supports.

Further, he said the platform called for "vigorous protection of the rights of labor."

Murray Undergoes Emergency Appendectomy
Pittsburgh, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Philip Murray, president of the CIO and the United Steelworkers of America, underwent an emergency appendectomy at Mercy hospital last night. His condition was reported satisfactory today. The hospital said he spent a "comfortable day."

The labor leader will be 63 in May. He entered the hospital two weeks ago for a rest and a physical check-up after suffering a stomach disorder.

His wife said he suffered an attack at 10 o'clock last night which was diagnosed as appendicitis. Immediate surgery was decided on and Dr. J. E. McClenahan performed the operation at midnight.

Today more than 500,000 members of the steelworkers union Murray helped to organize more than a decade ago were voting in the United States and Canada for his re-election as their president. Murray was unopposed.

Jet Plane Crosses U.S. Continent In 3 Hrs. 46 Min.
Washington, Feb. 8.—(AP)—An arrow-shaped XB-47 jet bomber streaked through the stratosphere at an average speed of 607.2 miles an hour today in the fastest transcontinental flight ever made.

The bomber, rated as "light" despite its 125,000 pounds, flew 2,289 miles from Moses Lake (Wash.) air base to Andrews Field, Md., a few miles southeast of the capital, in three hours 46 minutes.

The pace was 27 minutes shorter in time and 23 miles faster in average speed than the official record of four hours 13 minutes at 584 MPH established by Col. William H. Council in an F-80 Shooting Star two years ago.

However, the air force will claim no record. The flight was not timed officially and it did not fly the recognized contest course. The recognized course—the one that Col. Council flew—is Los Angeles to New York, 2,464 miles.

BONUS CHECKS
Chicago, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Three hundred checks worth a total of $70,133.54 were mailed today to Illinois State soldier bonus claimants. The state has paid out $303,538.36 to 419,199 Cook county veterans and 413,399 from downstate.

Miller Nominated Freeport Mayor
Freeport, Ill., Feb. 8.—(AP)—Mayor Earl E. Miller of Freeport today won a third term nomination, defeating Miles Adams, a World II veteran, by a vote of 1,126 to 879.

They were rivals on the citizens' party ticket in Freeport's non-partisan primary. Most Republicans usually vote the citizens' ticket and Democrats usually vote in the people's party primary.

Complete, unofficial returns from the city's 21 precincts gave Glen F. Kunkle the people's party nomination. He defeated Louis W. Stigman 1,092 to 486. Both Kunkle and Stigman are aldermen.

Mindszenty Gets Life Sentence For Treason

Washington, Feb. 8.—(AP)—The administration asserted today that Soviet Russia is now clearly losing a "deliberate and bitter" campaign against the success of the Marshall plan in Europe.

But congress was told that it is vital "to press that success" and carry on the European Recovery Program for at least another 15 months at a cost of $5,580,000,000.

This was the picture sketched by Secretary of State Dean Acheson and his two top recovery aides in testimony before a joint session of the Senate and House foreign committees.

Summarizing results of the first year of multi-billion-dollar U. S. aid to Europe, Acheson told the lawmakers:

"The outstanding fact is that the program is succeeding."

"The worst of all courses would be to relax our efforts and allow the momentum of achievement to falter."

In rapid succession, Marshall Plan Ambassador W. Averell Harriman and Marshall Plan Administrator Paul G. Hoffman echoed Acheson's confident assurance that Russia's drive to spread its own tenets of communism has met a severe setback.

Highlights of their testimony: Acheson—"The free community of Europe has not only held its own."

State Demos Will Introduce Fair Employment Bill
Springfield, Ill., Feb. 8.—(AP)—The Democratic state administration today perfected a proposed Illinois fair employment practices act for introduction in the general assembly early next week.

Wrinkles were ironed out of the measure at a conference of lawmakers with special legislative advisors of Governor Adlai E. Stevenson.

Several Republicans were among the 15 senators and representatives who sat in on the meeting with two Stevenson aides—Prof. Walter V. Scheffer, on leave from the Northwestern University law school, and State Revenue Director Richard J. Daley, former Democratic state senator.

The legislation would outlaw job discrimination for reasons of race, color, religion or national origin. Such proposals were defeated in each of the last three legislative sessions.

Conspicuously missing from the current draft were penalty provisions which drew heavy opposition fire in previous attempts to put over FEPC.

Another Mystery: Parents Surprised By Baby's Arrival
Douglas, Okla., Feb. 8.—(AP)—The doctor can't explain it. Pop is baffled.

But the biggest surprise was on the young mother.

It's because no one foresaw—until the absolute last moment—the arrival of Baby Baylor at a wheat ranch home near here.

Call her "Baby"—there wasn't even a name ready for her.

Mrs. Robert Baylor, 29, wasn't feeling so well Saturday night. She and her 10-year-old daughter Delores were both getting over the measles.

When the mother began feeling pains in her tummy, she thought it was just too much. She had her husband call Dr. H. G. Parker, who has been the community's family physician since 1904.

Dr. Parker arrived in due course and made his examination.

The diagnosis: a baby, and right quickly.

Mrs. Baylor—135 pounds—protested she had no evidence whatever that she was expecting a baby. But Dr. Parker wasn't listening. He was on his way back to town to get the right set of tools—having brought nothing but his measles kit.

When the doctor reached his own home 31 miles away, word was waiting for him. The stork had slipped in behind his back.

Dr. Parker hot-footed it back to the Baylor farm. He arrived just in time to complete the technicalities. Baby Baylor weighed in at 6 pounds, and is doing nicely.

Pope Pius Turns To Prayer In Sorrow Over Cardinal
Vatican City, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Pope Pius XII prayed sorrowfully in his private chapel today for Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, a man he raised to the Purple three years ago this month.

The Pope hastened to the chapel and dropped to his knees immediately after learning that a Budapest court had convicted Cardinal Mindszenty of treason and other charges and sentenced him to life imprisonment. The newspaper Momento-Sera said he wept.

"He received the news with the most profound sorrow," an informed Vatican source said.

It is believed the Pontiff will seize the first occasion that presents itself to protest "in the hardest and most definitive terms," this informant said.

Vatican sources indicated they believed the Pope had been blocked from making a personal comment on the Cardinal's arrest and trial by a desire not to irritate the Budapest

Says Marshall Plan Is Winning Over Russians

Washington, Feb. 8.—(AP)—The administration asserted today that Soviet Russia is now clearly losing a "deliberate and bitter" campaign against the success of the Marshall plan in Europe.

But congress was told that it is vital "to press that success" and carry on the European Recovery Program for at least another 15 months at a cost of $5,580,000,000.

This was the picture sketched by Secretary of State Dean Acheson and his two top recovery aides in testimony before a joint session of the Senate and House foreign committees.

Summarizing results of the first year of multi-billion-dollar U. S. aid to Europe, Acheson told the lawmakers:

"The outstanding fact is that the program is succeeding."

"The worst of all courses would be to relax our efforts and allow the momentum of achievement to falter."

In rapid succession, Marshall Plan Ambassador W. Averell Harriman and Marshall Plan Administrator Paul G. Hoffman echoed Acheson's confident assurance that Russia's drive to spread its own tenets of communism has met a severe setback.

Highlights of their testimony: Acheson—"The free community of Europe has not only held its own."

Mildred Gillars Collapses At Her 'Axis Sally' Trial
Washington, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Mildred E. "Axis Sally" Gillars collapsed at her treason trial today after hearing her own voice on a wartime Nazi broadcast describing American airmen who bombed Berlin as "murderers."

A government witness, Hans Von Richter, himself a former German radio official and ex-Nazi, identified the voice of the woman on the broadcast as the voice of Miss Gillars.

Judge Edward M. Curran recessed the trial, now in its third week, until tomorrow when informed of the defendant's illness.

Pale and complaining of dizziness, Miss Gillars was helped from the courtroom on the arm of a deputy U. S. marshal. She was taken to the infirmary in the district jail.

Her illness came shortly after she had lunched on a pork chop brought from a nearby restaurant at noon. The 48-year-old defendant, a native of Portland, Me., is on trial for her life on a 10-count indictment accusing her of betraying the United States by aiding Hitler's psychological warfare program.

If convicted, she faces a possible maximum sentence of death.

Illinois Senate Protests Treason Trial Of Cardinal
Springfield, Ill., Feb. 8.—(AP)—The Illinois Senate today protested the trial and conviction of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty as a "despicable travesty on justice."

It approved a resolution "decrying the action taken by the Hungarian court under the domination of the Kremlin in Moscow" and called upon Illinois citizens to express their "indignation and displeasure."

"The entire trial, its conduct and procedure, is repugnant and contrary to the administration of justice as it is known in the democratic countries of the world," the resolution said.

CARS IN STATE REACH NEW RECORD
Springfield, Ill., Feb. 8.—(AP)—A record high of 1,904,991 passenger cars were registered in Illinois last year, the secretary of state's office said today.

The previous peak was 1,825,142 registrations in 1941.

Pope Pius Turns To Prayer In Sorrow Over Cardinal
Vatican City, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Pope Pius XII prayed sorrowfully in his private chapel today for Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, a man he raised to the Purple three years ago this month.

The Pope hastened to the chapel and dropped to his knees immediately after learning that a Budapest court had convicted Cardinal Mindszenty of treason and other charges and sentenced him to life imprisonment. The newspaper Momento-Sera said he wept.

"He received the news with the most profound sorrow," an informed Vatican source said.

It is believed the Pontiff will seize the first occasion that presents itself to protest "in the hardest and most definitive terms," this informant said.

Vatican sources indicated they believed the Pope had been blocked from making a personal comment on the Cardinal's arrest and trial by a desire not to irritate the Budapest judges, but now "he will feel no restraints."

The Vatican newspaper L'Osservatore Romano, usually deliberate, bitterly condemned the sentence and declared:

"The world sees Josef Mindszenty mount his calvary, carrying a cross which is still the world's."

The newspaper of the lay organization Catholic action, Il Quotidiano, declared world indignation falls upon the Hungarian government because of "the sacrilegious parody of justice meant to wound, in the person of Intrepid Cardinal Mindszenty, the Catholic church."

An American priest in touch with the Vatican said the Hungarian regime wants "to put him on a shelf to be forgotten, but he will not be forgotten."

There was no indication whether Pope Pius might use one of his daily audiences or some other channel to voice his protest. It might be made in a broadcast or in an encyclical.

Prosecution Blasts U.S. 'Meddling'

by Endre Marton
Budapest, Hungary, Feb. 8.—(AP)—Josef Cardinal Mindszenty calmly received a life sentence today on a charge of treason and, just as calmly, filed a hazardous appeal.

"Yes," answered the Roman Catholic primate when asked if he wanted to carry the case to a higher court.

Though the possibility the penalty might be increased to death on the gallows weighed against the possibility of a lighter sentence—the appeals court can decide either way—the voice of the 56-year-old cardinal was firm and clear.

The prosecution demanded again that he die.

A five-man people's court convicted Cardinal Mindszenty of treason, seeking to overthrow the Communist government in favor of the Hapsburg monarchy, and illegal speculation in American dollars obtained from the United States and the Vatican. His money was ordered confiscated.

All six co-defendants, of Cardinal Mindszenty's faith, were convicted with him and were sentenced to prison terms ranging from three years to life. Appeals also were entered for them except the Rev. Ondras Zakar, young former secretary to the cardinal, who drew a six-year term.

In addition to the prison terms, property of the defendants was ordered confiscated.

Only Private Holdings
It was generally accepted in the grey brick courtroom that the confiscation in the cardinal's case would apply only to his private holdings and not the property and money in his name as spiritual leader of Hungary's 7,000,000 Catholics.

(Vatican sources said the cardinal was personally poor, holding only a small plot of ground near his home town and having no house other than the archbishop's palace. The palace and its grounds are held in the name of the church.)

Coupled with the verdict was a court attack on the United States. Presiding Judge Vilmos Olthys, the one professional jurist on the bench, declared the United States was a supporter of reactionary forces and a meddling in Hungarian affairs.

"U. S. Minister (Selden) Chapin had a great role in building up the activities of Mindszenty," the judge said.

Chapin Denied Admittance
Chapin, who was among diplomats denied admittance to the trial, commented later the statements about him, as well as allegations during the trial implying improper contacts by American personnel, "are nonsense and pure fantasy."

"It is what could be expected," he said.

(The Vatican newspaper L'Osservatore Romano said "the world sees Josef Mindszenty mount his calvary, carrying a cross which is still the world's.")

The newspaper said the Hungarian government felt it was necessary to eliminate the cardinal from public life, but feared to condemn him to death.

Pope Pius XII sorrowfully entered his private chapel upon learning of the verdict and knelt long in prayer.

Tension was evident in the courtroom even before the session opened. Kalmán Kikó, Cardinal Mindszenty's lawyer, seated himself at 7:45 a.m. (1:45 a.m. CST) for an examination of documents.

Huddled In Corner
Duke Esterhazy's wife, a former ballet dancer, huddled in a corner with her head in her hands as if in prayer.

Five minutes later the defendants entered the courtroom and went quietly to their places. Only Prof. Barany appeared interested in the scene, darting glances around the room.

Gabor Petr, head of the political police, arrived with his entourage. The judges entered at 9:07 a.m., seven minutes later. Everyone rose.

"The people's court is now in session," Judge Olthys announced.

A roll call of the defendants followed. Cardinal Mindszenty murmured as his name was called.

The seven lined up in a row for the verdicts. Cardinal Mindszenty stood quietly with his hands folded, his face expressionless.

Then Judge Olthys announced conviction in each case.

HISTORICAL DOCUMENTS ON DISPLAY OF INTEREST TO JACKSONVILLE

Jacksonville is represented by several historical documents which are a part of an exhibit by the Archives Division of the Illinois State Library at Springfield. The exhibit deals with Illinois government 100 years ago, 1849—the first year in which the state operated under its new Constitution, and which saw the enactment of the first secret ballot law, probably the first “old age pension” plan, and the election of a Secretary of State as a public official for the first time. The original charter of Jacksonville is in the exhibit, along with records of the founding of local state institutions. These documents are of especial interest to Morgan county citizens who may visit the state library at Springfield during the next few weeks.

The exhibit on display in the museum room of the Archives building features the signature page of the original copy of the 1848 Constitution, the original appropriation bill for the 1849-51 biennium, the letter book and the executive register of Governor Augustus C. French, and reports of State Treasurer John Moore. The total appropriation for state expenses for that biennium was $76,009.92.

Secretary Barrett said his “political ancestor,” Secretary of State Horace S. Cooley was both the last Secretary appointed by a governor and the first elected by the people. The 1848 Constitution provided for the direct election of the secretary. Cooley had been appointed to the position in 1846 by Governor French and was elected to it in 1848.

The original copy of the bill which enacted the first secret ballot law in Illinois passed by the 16th General Assembly in 1849, is included in the exhibit. Voters previously recited their choices for public office to the election judges, who wrote them down.

Another law enacted authorized the Protestant Episcopal church in Illinois to raise a fund “for the support of a bishop and to aid superannuated ministers and the widows and children of deceased ministers.” This is probably the first old age pension bill.

Other “firsts” in the 1849 legislation were the incorporation of the Firemen’s Benevolent Association of the City of Chicago, a voluntary organization of Chicago firemen and the first such compensation fund incorporated in Illinois; an act establishing telegraphs, the first act mentioning that word, and the first “for profit” corporation act, which authorized the formation of corporations for manufacturing, agriculture, mining and mechanical purposes.

Other significant legislation passed that year included an act to provide for township and county organization, which gave counties the choice of a three-member commission as its governing body or a board of supervisors representing the townships; a joint resolution instructing Illinois members of Congress to work for legislation prohibiting slavery in the territory acquired from Mexico and a joint resolution favoring the transportation “of all free people of color” to Liberia at government expense. The original copies of all these bills and resolutions are on display.

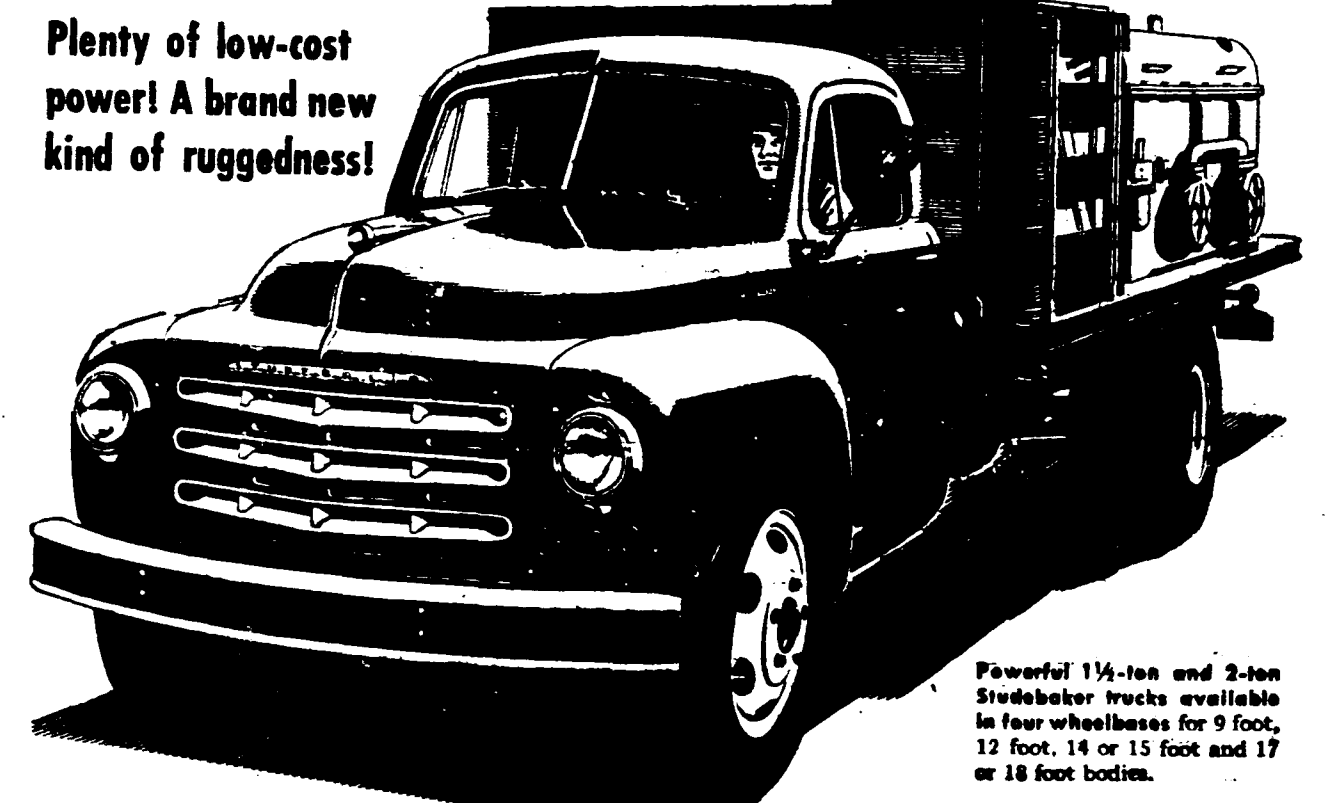

Also on display are the original charters for the towns of Waterloo, Jacksonville, Columbus, Canton and Little Fort. (Little Fort is now Waukegan) and the city of Rock Island.

The original incorporation act for the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois Independent Order of Odd Fellows, is in the exhibit, together with the incorporation acts for four Masonic lodges Cambridge lodge No. 49 of Cambridge, St. John’s lodge No. 13 of Peru, Trio lodge No. 57 of Rock Island and Jackson lodge No. 53 of Shelbyville.

The Chicago Gas, Light and Coke Company incorporation papers are shown also.

Other original acts in the exhibit established the Illinois State School for the Blind and the Illinois School for the Deaf in Jacksonville. The school for the deaf had been established in 1839, but was a private institution operating with some state subsidies. The 1849 act made it a full fledged state institution.

Who’s Afraid Of A ‘Return To Normalcy?’—Everyone

By Hal Boyle
New York—(P)—Big changes often start in small ways.
The ordinary man doesn’t notice them at first. But gradually he begins unconsciously to add them up. And all at once there flashes into his mind the conviction: “Something’s in the wind.”
And there does seem to be something new in the financial wind. The American post-war hurricane of inflation is slowing down on many fronts. And already fears are rising that the national economy will be caught in the doldrums.
Yes, the signs come in small ways.
A week ago a paper cup of carry-out coffee at the drugstore downstairs cost fifteen cents. This week it dropped to twelve cents. The price of a dish of cereal fell from twenty cents to fifteen.
Be Cigar Goes On Sale
A five-cent cigar went on sale here and was front page news.
Columbia University noted a decline in the employment of woman graduates.
A prominent realty broker, looking ahead to a time when the housing shortage would be over, asked for a federal law putting a floor on rentals to protect landlords.
These are only a few of many straws showing a shift in the wind. Even more indicative is a return of old-fashioned politeness to the customer, who used to be always right but has been wrong for several years. Shop owners are getting ready to scrimmage for business again.
This should make the average customer feel good again after his years of casual abuse. But instead they seem to disturb him somewhat.
“What’s behind it?” he asks.
Fear Depression, Not Inflation
He likes prices to go down. Every consumer does. But he has an unspoken fear that if prices go down—jobs will go down, too. And nobody wants that.
At heart the American fear is of depression rather than of inflation. This country has had some terrible depressions. It hasn’t known since Revolutionary War days, the ravages of rampant inflation on a nation-wide scale—inflation, that is, such as swept Europe and China.
Americans like to expand, hate to contract. They trust growth, fear decline. Few believe the country will ever toboggan again to the economic depths of the early 1930s. But they distrust a down-slide of any kind, because nobody can always be sure of his brakes.
Who’s afraid of a “return to normalcy.” Practically everybody.

Parents Should Keep Watch On Children’s Teeth

(Last of a series prepared by the Morgan County Dental Society).
Sugars and starches, we know, cause tooth decay. Because of the nature of this process it is obvious that little in the way of prevention can be accomplished co-operative of parents and their children.
A number of other preventive methods are also important for consideration. The topical application of sodium fluoride can reduce decay in children’s teeth by an average of forty per cent. No child should be deprived of this treatment! Sodium fluoride will not stop decay in progress. It only prevents occurrence of many new cavities. Fillings will still be needed in teeth where decay is present and for these new cavities which may form in spite of treatment with sodium fluoride. It is believed that the fluorine combines with the tooth to produce a more acid resistant enamel. It is also believed that sodium fluoride interferes with certain chemicals called bacterial enzymes. These enzymes are formed by bacteria and are responsible and necessary for the chemical conversion of sugar to acids. Such substances as silver nitrate, urea, vitamin K and sephiran are also known as enzyme inhibitors and act in this capacity much like sodium fluoride. The use of most enzyme inhibitors is still in the experimental stage; and because of this, the majority of dentists have not adopted their use.
Danger Of Crowded Teeth
The form and arrangement of the teeth are important in preventing tooth decay. Poorly arranged and crowded teeth permit impaction of food and allow the acids to be held upon all surfaces of the teeth continuously. The early loss of deciduous (baby) teeth, or the loss at any time of permanent teeth, will, if not compensated for by a dentist, produce an unfavorable change in tooth alignment.
In any mouth, acids may be formed rapidly or slowly and also may be neutralized rapidly or slowly. Individuals who show rapid acid formation and slow neutralization will develop tooth decay rapidly even when small amounts of sugars and starches are consumed. Those individuals who form acids slowly and neutralize them rapidly can eat large quantities of sugars and starches without causing tooth decay. This means that the amount of precaution necessary concerning the diet and other control measures varies from individual to individual. The secret lies with the saliva. It may be that the decay-free individual produces saliva which has the unique capacity of generating sufficient ammonia to neutralize acid as it is formed.
It has been suggested that ammonia be added to a dentifrice. This increased supply of ammonia, it is hoped, will help prevent dental decay. Even dilute solutions of ammonia will slow the growth of damage these bacteria can produce. The source of ammonia in these dentifrices, dibasic ammonium phosphate, may neutralize any acid that forms.
With the cause of decay understood and with the knowledge of the modern approach to prevention, it is possible for everyone working with the dentist to stop a majority of tooth decay. Regular and frequent mouth examinations by a dentist will disclose the cavities that form despite these precautions while they are still small.
Remember, it is easier to fill a small cavity than it is a large one. Sound, natural teeth should be the goal of every parent for his child.

Barbecued 'Ribs' Are Good Eating At Its Finest

MENU
Barbecued Spareribs
Baked Potatoes
Buttered Carrots
Cabbage Salad
Sour Cream Dressing
Brownies a la Mode
Milk Coffee

A reputation for good barbecued spareribs has brought reknown to some of the finest restaurants in the country—and it can be your route to culinary success, too. There are mighty few people in this world who would turn down this favorite pork cut!

Actually, you can't make spareribs too often because they fit into every kind of occasion—the family loves 'em, they're wonderful if you're planning to entertain, and even if you decide to pick up your meal and carry it to the great outdoors to eat, spareribs go right along in fine style. Just pack them in several "layers" of newspaper if you want to eat them hot, or chill well in the refrigerator (they're just as good cold!). When buying spareribs, select the meatiest ones you can find, then

Satisfaction in Each Portion

There's satisfaction in every portion of good barbecued spareribs—just ask your family the next time you serve them! They are a meal in themselves, either at home or at a picnic. A good accompaniment is baked potatoes—if you're outdoors bake them in the coals of your camp-fire.

allow 3/4 to 1 pound per person. (If you have ribs leftover they are good cold for between-meal snacks.) Have your meat dealer cut them into eating-sized portions, or at least "crack" the ribs so you can cut them yourself.

Perfection in Spareribs
Perfect barbecued spareribs depend on just two things: slow cooking and long cooking. If the ribs are cooked quickly they will lose their juiciness, and if they are not completely cooked, the flavor will not be developed to the fullest. Be sure you cook them slowly and completely if you want that "falling off the bone" tenderness and goodness. If you'd like a bit "different" touch with your ribs occasionally, cook them with a slice of onion and a slice of lemon perched a-top each serving portion. Another time add a slice of green pepper, or still another time three or four dill pickle slices.

Barbecued Spareribs Supreme
3 pounds spareribs, cut into servings
1 medium onion, chopped
2 tablespoons butter, margarine, or bacon drippings
2 tablespoons vinegar
2 tablespoons brown sugar
1 small bottle or 1 cup catsup
3 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
1 cup water
4cup chopped celery (optional)
Salt and pepper to season
Brown spareribs on all sides. Place fat in saucepan; add onion and brown. Add remaining ingredients and cook slowly until flavors are blended, about 15 minutes. Pour sauce over browned spareribs. Cover

New York Stock Market

New York, Feb. 8.—(P)—The stock market held its ground today in the face of a fresh break on commodity exchanges.

Key issues swung back and fourth in narrow price range. Upward tendencies appeared off and on but none had enough drive to get anywhere.

Trading slowed from yesterday's comparatively rapid pace although it was still substantial. Volume for the full session ran close to 1,000,000 shares.

The financial district considered the stability of the market impressive in view of sagging commodity prices. Many traders, it was said, are being forced to sell stocks in order to raise funds to maintain their position in commodity deals.

General Motors rallied smartly from an opening loss of 1 1/2 points, which followed news late yesterday that the company's board had voted a dividend of $1.25 a share.

Higher a good part of the day were Bethlehem Steel, Chrysler, Goodrich, Montgomery Ward, Illinois Central, Phelps Dodge and Radio Corp.

A bit on the droopy side were U. S. Steel, International Business Machines, Farnsworth Television, American Can, American Telephone, Standard Oil of California, General Electric and Pennsylvania R. R. Corporate bonds moved narrowly. U. S. governments were firm in over-the-counter dealings.

One Way to Increase the Air Force

In case the United States ever needs to increase its Air Force hurriedly, here's the answer. There are really only half as many planes in this picture as it appears. This freakish double exposure, taken of a Lockheed P-80 formation from Williams Air Force Base over Arizona wastelands, is the answer. (Air Force photo from NEA-Acme.)

LIMIT DECLINES MADE BY GRAINS AND SOYBEANS

Chicago, Feb. 8.—(P)—All grains and soybeans broke the permissible daily limit in heavy liquidation at the board of trade today.

Liquidation started in soybeans and spread rapidly to other pits, today's selling continued the downward trend in prices that started last week.

Limit declines were also hung up at Kansas City and Minneapolis. Brokers said disappointment in government buying and lack of interest by importing countries were contributing factors.

Receipts were: wheat 21 cars, corn 109, oats 4 and soybeans 1.

Italians Seek Pot Of Gold

Rome.—(P)—Long-shot loving Italians have gone all out on betting. Since 1938 Italian cost of living increased 48 times. But bets and guesses on weekly soccer pools and lotto—the numbers game—increased 600 times.

Most of the estimated 20,000,000,000 lire (about $33,000,000) placed last year for a chance at the big money came from the pinched pockets of the poor, near poor and middle classes.

What makes them skimp and scrape are the weekly announcements of new Italian millionaires—the lucky two to a dozen who correctly guessed the 12 winning teams of the soccer pool. Frequently winners are from the most humble walks of life.

THE BIRD FOR PENNSYLVANIA

Philadelphia.—(P)—Pennsylvania growers predict they will raise 1,441,000 turkeys in 1949.

The state agriculture department reports that if the growers' plans are carried out, it means an autumn crop within 19,000 of the all time record raised in 1945.

Major factors fostering increased production include a plentiful supply of feed and the strong demand for turkey before and during the holiday season.

A federal-state survey discloses there will be a 25 per cent increase in turkey growing nationally.

POLAND PUSHES COMMUNIST EDUCATION

Warsaw, Poland.—(P)—Poland plans to spend nearly $200,000,000 this year in pushing her Communist-directed "cultural offensive." The Communist-dominated ministry of education says it is rapidly expanding educational facilities for Poles, with the accent upon affording every advantage possible to the children of workers and peasants.

Libraries, filled with literature of the Marxist-Leninist theme, are being set up in very strategic villages in Poland. An official estimate said 3,600,000 children were going to school this year. Seventy per cent of them come from peasant families.

Speed Warsaw Rebuilding

Warsaw.—(P)—Poles are proclaiming that Warsaw is half-way reconstructed and they paint a rosy picture for the future. But Polish engineers and architects say it will take until 1965 to completely rebuild what the Nazis demolished in their house-to-house systematic destruction after the unsuccessful Warsaw insurrection in the fall of 1944.

Poles have worked hard to rebuild their capital and by their own hands have cleared away hundreds of thousands of tons of ruins and rubble. Now reconstruction is being speeded up with the import of large quantities of machinery from Great Britain, Soviet Russia and other countries.

Warsaw today accommodates a population of about 600,000. The top pre-war figure was 1,289,000.

Feller Steps Down As Highest Paid Baseball Player

Cleveland, Feb. 8.—(P)—The Cleveland Indians' Bob Feller stepped down today from his place as baseball's highest paid player.

But not far down, Bill Veck, Tribe president, hastened to explain after he and the pitcher sped through the formality of signing the fireballer's 1949 contract.

"There aren't very many in baseball who ever got as much money as in the contract we just signed," Veck said. "And I hope he gets more every year."

He explained that the star pitcher's base pay would be the same as last year, but the bonuses based on home attendance would be less liberal. No figures were mentioned, of course, but it is generally believed Feller drew about $40,000 in base pay last season and an additional $42,500 in bonuses.

The cut Feller took today was rumored to amount to about $10,000. Veck described it as "very definitely" a cut.

Veck said Feller's pay reduction was not because he failed for the first time in his last six full seasons to win 20 games.

Rockets Drop Close PMBC League Contest To Chambersburg Five

Chambersburg—The Burgers annexed a 42 to 38 PMBC conference melee from Paul Stroud's Rocket Rockets on the local floor last night.

The Jacksonville five drove into an early lead—holding an 11 to 3 advantage over the host aggregation at the end of the first quarter of play. A. J. Spreen, Routt guard, spearheaded this early Rocket rally with his driving play and deadly one handed shots.

The Burgers, paced by Eddie Jackson, came back in the second frame to take over control of the ball game. The Rockets were having trouble with their gift-tosses. The Stroudmen connected for only 4 free throws out of 17 throughout the entire contest. They outscored the Chambersburg bunch 17 to 16 from the field.

A very close third inning closed with both clubs holding 28 points. However, Eddy Jackson and company proved too much for the Jacksonville boys in the final quarter, and the Burgers edged the Rockets for the second time this season.

Ezzard Charles Scores 8th Round KO Over Haynes

Philadelphia, Feb. 8.—(P)—Ezzard Charles looked forward today to a possible June title match with Joe Louis and back to a close shave triumph over 241-pound Johnny Haynes of New York.

Charles, 179-pound Cincinnati had one of the narrowest escapes of his ring career last night in beating Haynes via a knockout at 2:38 of the eighth furious round of their scheduled 10-round.

Charles converted his speed to bounce into victory with a right uppercut that knocked Haynes flat on his back in the eighth.

Haynes, a 6 foot 4 giant, got to one knee at eight but stayed there as he was counted out.

A minute before, Haynes had been bombarding Charles across the ring with a series of slashing rights to the head. It appeared that Charles was on the way to defeat.

But Charles had too much ring-know-how for that and marshalled his strength for the one blow that won the fight.

POP Goes the QUEEN

By Bob Wade and Bill Miller. Distributed by MEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: John Henry and Sin Conover, winners of an expensive-paid week at a swank deer resort, are visited by an armed man as they dress for dinner. The man leaves after saying he made a mistake. Later, while they are at a cafe where waiters are in Arab costume, Johnny is given a Queen of Diamonds on which is written, "Your deal." With the owner of the cafe, Mr. Barselou, Johnny and Sin search for the waiter who left the card. A back door opens and Homer Anglin, the man who visited their cottage, stumbles into the cafe dying from a bullet wound. Anglin whispers to Johnny: "You already got it." During the investigation, Barselou informs Police Lieutenant Lay that Anglin said something to Conover before he died, but Johnny, resenting Barselou's implication that the Conovers are mixed up in the murder, denies it.

VIII THEY turned into the palm-guarded cement walk that wound up to the hotel's front entrance. A rainbow of floodlights, carefully concealed in the shrubbery, bathed the area in carnival hues and threw grotesque shadows across their path. A lizard scuttled suddenly away from their footsteps. Sin suppressed a shriek, doing her best not to let their unexpected Saturday night get her down. John Henry pursed his mouth. "If we only had some idea what that Barselou is up to—"

"It's nothing that concerns us, Johnny. We don't know he's up to anything. I mean, it wasn't his fault that poor fellow got shot in his alley."

"Look at it this way, Sin. We get that funny card in his restaurant and it's delivered to us by a waiter in one of Barselou's costumes. We go up to his office, which is probably just what he wanted. As soon as we're there, you remark that we're tired from our trip and Barselou says it's a long drive from San Diego."

"Oh," said Sin softly. "Right. How did he know we were from San Diego? We weren't carrying avocados or anything."

"Johnny, he's been checking up on us!"

"Sure, and why? We're just two more people."

"He must think we're somebody else."

John Henry nodded emphatically. "That's the connection. Barselou thinks we're somebody else. And Anglin gets murdered at Barselou's back door. It ties up to me."

THEY started up the front steps of the Las Dunas and he realized they were practically running. They slowed to a sedate, unworried pace and pushed through the glass doors.

The lobby was bright and quiet and deserted. There was a youth behind the registration desk who gave them an overdone smile and good evening as they hurried by.

"You have the key?" Sin asked. John Henry felt his plastic arrowhead in his trousers pocket. "Uh-huh. Surprised?"

"After everything else, I sort of expected your pocket had been picked. Johnny, who are we?"

He could feel his wife relaxing and he grinned. "The Conovers, returning from a festive evening with the police."

The sunken patio was drenched in soft amber light. Scattered guests lounged at the metal tables under gaily striped umbrellas. White-jacketed waiters, carrying drinks on silver trays, scurried to and fro. The amber light made the drinks seem twice as potent.

A wide cement veranda ran down the north side of the patio. More of the umbrella tables were here, and broad doorways opened into the Oasis Room. The even percussion of a dance orchestra floated out into the garden, over a current of laughter, the hum of conversation and the clink of ice in glasses. The dancers were shadow people, dimly seen from the patio.

The pasteboard queen and the bloodstained leather jacket had no place in this holiday setting.

THEIR path curved gradually up the canyon of cottages. Darkness sneaked in on the two of them again. Most of the cottages were still unlighted. A few porch lamps beamed down coldly, reflecting from the white stucco. Somewhere up on the nearest hill, a coyote howled.

"I'm glad you left our porch light on," Sin said suddenly. "Always thinking ahead, that's—"

"What's wrong?"

"Nothing honey." John Henry could have sworn that he turned the porch light off last thing before they left. But there it was, clearly illuminating the black iron 15 on the white stucco. He glanced up and down the row of silent cottages. The canyon was devoid of life except for the Conovers and the crickets. Even the distant orchestra had taken an intermission.

Then he laughed at his abrupt ideas of ambush and they stepped up onto the porch.

He fumbled the key out of his pocket. "Nothing, Sin."

"Johnny! What are you laughing at?"

John Henry punched the key into the lock. Then he withdrew it and said, "I'm not laughing."

"Then why aren't you? You were."

He looked down at the lock. "I could swear I locked it when we—"

He let his voice trail off as he tried the handle. It worked smoothly and the door swung away from them into the blackness of the cottage. "Guess I forgot that too," he said sheepishly and patted around for the light switch on the inside wall. The front room came into brilliant being.

Sin's scream was short and piercing. John Henry jumped and swore automatically. Sin was wrapped around him arm, pressing her body half behind him, her eyelashes fluttering in fright.

SEA SCOUTS TO SPONSOR DANCE FRIDAY NIGHT

A preliminary report on ticket sales was made Monday night by Sea Scouts of Ship 109 at a regular meeting held at the Elks club. The Scouts, in hopes of raising enough money to get their Snipe sailboat and canoe in condition for the approaching boating season, are sponsoring a benefit dance to be given at the Elks club Friday night, Feb. 11.

The Scouts have engaged Jimmy Conlee and his orchestra. Good ticket sales, they figure, would enable them to recondition their boats and maybe buy the materials for a new dock on Lake Jacksonville. Eighteen youths belong to the organization.

Choir Singers From Vienna Enjoy Stay In Jacksonville

By Mary Ellen Broge

Twenty-one Viennese choir boys stopped at Jacksonville's Illinois hotel last night on their way to a concert at Kirksville, Mo., one stop on their coast-to-coast tour of this country.

All of the boys, ranging from 10-13 years, are students in the Vienna Sagenknaben—the school that helped to mold the great Viennese music makers, Franz Schubert, Wolfgang Mozart and Joseph Haydn.

The school itself, founded in 1498, has present-day standards comparable to any modern educational center. That includes the study of mathematics and Latin.

And in an hotel room interview with four of the chorists—Charles, 13; Herbert, 12; Horst, 11; and Hans, 11—it became evident that English is a major part of the Austrian school-life. And so is humor.

It was only after 15 hectic minutes of interview via high school German, that we were able to ask any clear-cut questions. English was used just after one of the boys asked, "Why don't you say it in English?" laughing because we had believed their "neins" to our queries.

It was then that we filled in the empty spaces about their tour, and the boys themselves. The troupe started its tour in New York City in October and will continue to entertain audiences here until late in March.

When asked how they liked America, the lads weren't a bit shy about telling us that it is "good."

The active caretakers were Ed Wild, Paul Markkille, B. F. Walker, Howard Hurrell, John Barnett, and Floyd Rink.

The honorary pallbearers were Fritz Haskell, Cliff Mills, Ed Wilson, Clarence Dines, Bill Bohnemeyer, R. R. Gasen, Joe Montgomery, Norbert Hutchens, James Havens, Royal Oakes, William Herring, and Ode Scott.

The flower girls were Mrs. Alma Markkille, Mrs. Edna Bohnemeyer, Mrs. Elmer Funk, Mrs. Perry Barnett, Miss Margaret Burke, Miss Evelyn Placke, Mrs. Ed Wild, and Mrs. Charles Martin. Two musical selections were rendered by Mrs. Mazy Smith, accompanied at the organ by Miss Norma Jean Smith.

The service was officiated by the Rev. Ralph Jasper of the Methodist church. Burial was in Winchester cemetery.

He is survived by one niece, Miss Mabel Wilcox of Akron, Ohio.

State Tests Show Hawkeye Soybeans Tops In Illinois

Urbana—Hawkeye soybeans have produced another surprise, say Illinois College of Agriculture agronomists. It seems they're adapted farther south in Illinois than anyone had believed.

Hawkeye has produced the largest yield of any variety for the past three years in tests at the University's experimental farm at Champaign-Urbana, reports J. C. Hackelman, extension service agronomist.

In 1948, Hawkeye yielded 41 bushels, tops for 16 varieties tested. On the two-year test, it averaged 33 bushels, best of 14 varieties grown both years. For the three-year average, 1946-48, the Hawkeye yield was 35 bushels, again the largest for 11 varieties tested all three years. These figures were furnished by R. F. Fulleman, University agronomist.

"I guess I'll have to stop saying Hawkeyes are adapted primarily to north central and northern Illinois," Hackelman said.

"Don't wait until planting time to get your Hawkeye seed," Hackelman warned. "The seed can now be sold outside the state. There is a strong demand in Indiana and Iowa especially, and the price may go up later in the spring."

In addition, Hawkeye can profitably replace Lincoln on the northern edge of the Lincoln belt, where farmers are always gambling with Lincoln getting caught by frost.

Greene Co. Home Bureau Units To Meet This Week

Carrollton—Miss Sophia Powell will give the major lesson on "Efficient Lighting" this week at the meeting of four Home Bureau units. The Carrollton Day unit scheduled for Wednesday has been postponed and will be held in the Farm Bureau hall Monday afternoon, Feb. 21.

Smith; the Rubicon unit met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gary Melvin; the Rockbridge unit will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. C. Fain, and the Kane unit will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. M. Fish.

W. H. Brown, Jr., farm adviser and Miss Sophia Powell, home adviser, will accompany a group of agricultural and home economics 4-H club leaders to Jacksonville on Feb. 18, to attend the 4-H club leaders conference.

Couples Return From Long Trip Through West

Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Walker of this city and Mrs. William Hart of Winchester have returned from a three weeks automobile tour in western states and Mexico. They drove 5,600 miles.

While in San Francisco, Mr. Walker attended the annual convention of the National Automobile Dealers Association, which attracted an attendance of 5,000.

The tourists visited in Los Angeles with Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Murray and Miss Dorothy Murray, niece of Mr. Walker. They are former Winchester residents.

The Walkers and Harts entered Mexico twice, at Tijuana and Juarez. They attended the western Livestock show and rodeo at Fort Worth, Tex.

Mr. Walker reported that they missed most of the snow in California, but saw evidence of damaged citrus groves and flowers.

The travelers found that the length of a bridge doesn't have much relation to the toll. They paid 50 cents to get across the Mississippi river on their way west. The toll across the Golden Gate bridge at San Francisco, connecting spans over eight and one-half miles, was 25 cents. The bridge fares across bridges entering Mexico was three cents.

Sangamon Pastor Gives Founders Day Address

The Rev. Richard Paul Graebel, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Springfield, gave the address at the Illinois College "Founders Day" program Tuesday morning in Jones Chapel. His subject was "Education for Defeat."

According to the Rev. Graebel, "The past 50 years have shown that astonishing feats have been performed in the arts and sciences. World wars have shown the fragility of our feasts. Idealists have proclaimed the age of the common man, while the iconoclasts have pointed to the common grave."

"Great expectations have turned into great disillusionments, and the sheer physical waste of our day knows no parallel in recorded time. We are the moderns, and we thought we were smart. In our conceit is our defeat. The time of reckoning has come at last."

The speaker went on to say that "in the future we are going to pay more attention to motives and less to machinery; more attention to the soul and less to society. The individual, not collectives, must again become our concern. The heart of education is the education of the individual heart. Without God in life, life is profane nothing."

Dr. Graebel's address was preceded by a selection by the Illinois College choir, led by Henry Busche, and a solo by Richard Mills.

President H. Gary Hudson, who paid tribute to the founders of the college, pointed out that "the founders are not only those men who provided the beginnings of the school, but also those who have contributed to the college during its many years."

Prayer was offered by Chaplain Daniel E. Kerr, and the services closed with the singing of The Alma Mater. Mrs. Ralph Hutchison was organist.

Great Books Group Meets At Library Monday Evening

Dr. Malcolm Stewart was guest leader for the Great Books seminar at the public library on Monday evening when Aristotle's Politics was discussed.

But, if all communities aim at some good, the state or political community which is the highest of all, and which embraces all the rest, aims at good in a greater degree than any other, and at the highest good."

Dr. Joachim Stenzel will be guest leader on Feb. 21 when the discussion will be based on Plutarch: Lycurgus, Numa and Comparison, Alexander and Caesar.
